Celebrating Our Family

Meet Sarah Hartong

Bells of Joy Handbell Choir Director

Sarah was born and raised in Ohio and moved to the valley in August of 2014 for school. Her favorite part of Arizona is of course the winter months! Right now she is in her second semester of graduate school at ASU. She is studying for a Master's degree in flute performance.

Sarah came to St. Matthew United Methodist Church through a job posting for Bells of Joy Handbell Choir director on campus. She enjoys working in her position here very much.

She would like to see St. Matthew United Methodist Church continue to grow by having a full bell choir and also adding a youth bell choir and children's bell choir.

FAREWELL to PASTOR MICHAEL

Sunday, May 17 will be the last Sunday that Pastor Michael will be preaching as our pastor. Please come together after the 10:30 a.m. Contemporary Worship service as a congregation to join in fellowship, friendship and love to say our goodbyes and good wishes to Pastor Michael. Bring your encouraging words and well wishes as he leaves St. Matthew to travel to his new church, St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Globe, Arizona.

Habitat for Humanity

The next Habitat Home Dedication will be held on Saturday, May 2. Please call Duane Kiddoo at 480-831-1337 or email him at kiddooskdk@aol.com for more information.

Sunday, May 10, 2015

Sunday, May 10 is Mother's Day. Remember to do something special for your Mom. Every effort, thought, smile, gift or card is a treasure to every Mother. Make it a day full of fun memories. Take time to read the Mother's Day poem on page 5 of this issue. Happy Mother's Day!!!!

Michael's Musings

I remember a very significant move in my life. It was the time when I came to Arizona from New York. I was one year out of high school and it was in the middle of July in 1978. My family was moving too and we drove across country as a caravan. I filled up my 1965 Ford Fairlane with gas at 55 cents per gallon (remember those days?)

After spending time in Virginia at my grandparents my family and I, in three cars, drove across the country. We entered into Arizona on I-40. I was fascinated by the landscape. We decided to spend the night in Winslow (I remembered the Eagles' song, "Take it Easy" so I stood on a corner.) The next day we drove to Flagstaff to fill up our cars. I was transfixed by the San Francisco Peaks. I started thinking what a really cool place Arizona was turning out to be.

Needless to say the temperature increased significantly as we drove from Flagstaff to Phoenix. Again the landscape fascinated me as the scenery changed from ponderosa pine trees to high desert and finally to the desert around Phoenix. I should also mention that my car did not have air conditioning.

I got settled into my new surroundings. I got a job at a Sambos restaurant on 43rd Avenue and Olive Avenue, and I registered for classes at Glendale Community College. With everything new happening I didn't realize what I was missing. I left my friends back in New York – people that were my support system. I made a couple of friends at Sambos but it wasn't the same.

It took until about the end September that I was able to experience a hike in the desert. I went to the White Tank Mountain Regional Park. It is located west of Phoenix. I walked on trails and blazed through areas without trails. I soon discovered that I was falling in love with the desert. I have since made many trips to the White Tanks. It was place where I could find peace and solitude.

Another big change is happening in my life and it has happened before. I will be appointed to serve another church. We have spent four years together and I feel blessed to have served as your pastor. We have shared tears over the death of loved ones. We have shared the pain born out of struggles. We have shared the grace of God and rejoice in the mystery of such great love from God.

You will always be in my heart. I look forward to hearing about your work in God's Kingdom under the leadership of the Rev. Joan Miller. I know Joan. We have ridden our bicycles together a couple of times. You will be in good hands. On July 1, 2015 I will no longer be your Pastor. However, I will always be your brother in Christ and a good friend. I love you and I always will. Please pray for Alane and me as we make our transition from St. Matthew UMC to our next appointment. Our prayers will continue for you as you continue to serve our Lord. Beloved of God, you are precious and beautiful to behold!

Grace and peace,

Sermon Plan for May 2015

May 3 - Fifth Sunday of Easter

Sermon Series "Tuning into Easter's Power"
"Thinking Clearly about God"

Psalm 4

Taking time to think about God can lead us to do great things for God.

May 10 - Sixth Sunday of Easter

The children and youth of St. Matthew will give the message this Sunday.

May 17 - Seventh Sunday of Easter

Sermon Series "Tuning into Easter's Power"
"Following the Lead of God"

Genesis 12:1-3

Following God means stepping up and stepping out to fulfill God's call.

May 24 - Pentecost Sunday

Mark Culbertson, our Youth Director, will give the message this Sunday.

"I Have a Dream"

Acts 2:14-21

What does Pentecost mean for us today?

May 31 - Trinity Sunday

Rev. Jim Ek will give the message this Sunday.

"Is and Is Not – The Mystery of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit"

Romans 8:12-14

Our creeds about the Trinity, besides being rooted in Scriptural concepts, are a product of Christian worship and prayer and firmly rooted in mystery.

Blueberry Cheesecake Bars Betty Crocker 2006

Bake Off Contest

Ingredient

1 pouch (1.5 oz) Betty Crocker oatmeal cookie mix

1/2 Cup butter or margarine, softened

1 egg

3 packages- (8 oz.) cream cheese softened

3/4 Cups sugar

1/2 Cup whipping cream

3 eggs

1 jar (10 oz.) blueberry spreadable fruit

1 1/2 Cups fresh or frozen thawed and drained whole blueberries

Directions

1. Heat oven to 350 degrees. Spray bottom and sides of 13 x 9 pan with cooking spray. In large bowl, beat cookie mix, butter and egg with electric mixer on low speed until soft dough forms. Press in bottom of pan.
2. Bake 15 minutes. Cool 10 minutes. Meanwhile, in another large bowl, beat cream cheese and sugar with mixer on medium speed until fluffy. Add whipping cream and eggs; beat on low speed until well blended.
3. Spread spreadable fruit over partially cooled crust. Sprinkle with blueberries. Pour cream cheese mixture evenly over blueberries, spreading gently to cover.
4. Bake 40 - 45 minutes or until center is set. Cool 30 minutes. Refrigerate at least 2 hours. For bars, cut into 7 rows by 4 rows. Store covered in refrigerator.

ENJOY!!!

Lay Leader Notes

Dear Brothers and Sisters of St. Matthew, Our Bishop, District Superintendent, and our Cabinet as well as we the family of St. Matthew all pray and work for the greater good of our Savior Jesus Christ. Sometimes we don't understand why prayers are answered in the fashion they are but we can thank God for all who do their best. DS Bob Burns sent a letter reminding those who knew and sharing for those who my not understand the process. I would like to share it with you all. Even for people who have been United Methodists all of their lives, the appointment process is sometimes seen as mysterious. If church members are happy with an appointment change, people think the process is wonderfully well designed. When church members are not happy about an appointment change, the process is challenged as not being responsive to our (read that my) needs. The United Methodist Church appointment process serves the whole church and meets the needs in a big picture world. One thing that I want to communicate is the very careful process that goes into making appointment change decisions. Every year the District Superintendent meets the Staff Parish Relations Committee (SPRC) to evaluate ministry in the church, current needs, and future plans. The SPRC is comprised of members of the church who represent the whole spectrum of people and opinions. They are given the sacred trust of determining the ongoing needs of the church and the character of pastoral leadership that is needed in a given season. We expect the members of the SPRC to be out and about and know about what is going on in the life of the church that the SPRC members are evaluating needs on an ongoing basis. We discourage SPRC teams from surveying the congregation because it is expected that the SPRC members are evaluating needs on an ongoing basis. There are three ways that the conclusion is reached that a pastoral appointment change is needed: 1) The pastor wishes to move. 2) The SPRC determines the church would best be served by an appointment change. Or 3) The Bishop and Appointive Cabinet (the District Superintendents) determine that the gifts and graces of a pastor are needed to serve the larger church in another appointed capacity. Every United Methodist pastor understands that appointments are made for the greater good of the whole church and sometimes do not meet every individual need or eventuality. I can also tell you that pastors are asked to make an appointment change and in this season are not forced to move. My purpose in writing this article is to help you understand that often people in the midst of a change cannot see the bigger picture and the larger needs of the whole church. In the short view we may feel our needs are not being met. I can assure you that when the Appointive Cabinet goes into the "appointment season" it is primarily a season of prayer. We ask God to open our hearts and minds and allow us to see the bigger picture and appointments of pastors to churches where God's greater glory will be done. In the long view, we often find that what we thought was a really bad idea for an appointment turns out to be the best thing to happen in the church. Why is that? Because God is involved first, last, and continually in the process. God is blessing you and your church, whether you always see that, or not. I ask you to join with me in praying for all churches and pastors who will have appointment changes this year. Change is always hard, and we pray for the whole church to be supportive of this whole season of appointments.

May God richly bless you.
DS Bob Burns

Blessings,
Barb Hedges and Betsy Hertzler,
Co-Lay Leaders

Church Work Area of the Month

Our church Historian is Greg Beihl. He is responsible for maintaining the church archives, which includes all of our printed material, photos and slides. The church has several albums of pictures from the early days as well as many boxes of slides documenting the growth of our congregation over the past four decades. There are notebook binders full of worship service bulletins over the years dating back to our first service held on September 16, 1973. His predecessor, Ardean Cottington kept excellent records and Greg will be converting all of the information onto digital records this year. This is a behind the scenes area of work in the church that is vital to the next generations, we move forward when we know our past! So let's tell Greg how much we appreciate his effort to move us forward into the 21st century and in keeping our records safe!

Lay Servanthood Explained

Several people have inquired about my role as a newly commissioned Lay Servant. I had been asked to the Basic Skills class offered by the Desert Southwest Conference after receiving approval from Pastor Michael Eaton, District Superintendent Robert Burns and St. Matthew charge conference.

Let me share with you the official job description provided to us. "A Lay Servant is an active, supportive member of a United Methodist congregation who is eager to be in ministry through the church. He/she is well-informed on scripture, doctrine, heritage, organization and life of the United Methodist Church and is committed to witnessing through church and community leadership, care giving ministries and spoken communication. A Lay Servant is willing to initiate ministry in partnership; with clergy and other lay Servants and is willing to improve his/her skills for service."

I completed my study and received my certificate in March 2015.

I thank you for your support as I begin this new journey.

Happy Mother's Day to All Mother's

God's Masterpiece

~Herbert Farnham

God took the fragrance of a flower,
The majesty of a tree,
The gentleness of morning dew,
The calm of a quiet sea

The beauty of the twilight hour,
The soul of a starry night,
The laughter of a rippling brook,
The grace of a bird in flight

Then God fashioned from these things
A creation like no other,
And when his masterpiece was through
He called it simply - Mother.

Christ Centered Living

As each of us travels on our own spiritual journey, there is often a time to rest and do an inventory. To help us to grow in our faith journey, a group of people evolved out of the church retreat in November. We have tried to present some thought provoking questions and statements each week to stimulate our thinking and daily Christian walk. We hope you have picked up a calendar on the Church Chat table to keep at home to reflect on the suggested thoughts. Please consider discussing your experiences and thoughts with others as you visit on the patio. If you have any suggestions for future thoughts or feedback, please visit or contact Ginny Smythe, Greg Beihl, Susan Lewis, Donna Benge, Denise Allen Bob Yager, Pastor Jim and/or Pastor Michael. We look forward to your input - even consider joining us.
